

How to Report Illegal Content in Posts on the Facebook App

1

If you see content on the Facebook app that you think might break the law and you'd like to report it, tap the three dots on the top right-hand side of the post you'd like to report.

Disclaimer: These guides provide examples and information to help the public understand the reporting methods on Facebook as of December 2025. They are illustrative only, do not constitute legal advice and do not represent the views or opinions of Coimisiún na Meán, including as to whether the reporting methods comply with relevant regulatory requirements or otherwise. From time to time, reporting methods on Facebook may change, and we will try to keep these guides up to date.

Once you choose this option, you'll be directed to a Legal removal request form where you'll be asked to complete a number of fields. Among other things, these include:

- what country you're from
- the URLs of the content you'd like to report
- a declaration that you're making your report in good faith.

Once you sign electronically, you submit your report.

Legal removal request

This form is intended for reporting content posted on Facebook that you believe violates your personal legal rights or applicable local laws. If you are trying to report a legal issue related to Defamation, Privacy or Intellectual Property, please use the drop-down reporting forms provided below. Before making this request, you may want to seek guidance from a qualified lawyer.

Please note that the content you'd like to report may violate our:

Community Standards (e.g. bullying, harassment, hate speech),
Advertising Policies
Commerce Policies

If you would like to report the content under our Community Standards, please visit the Help Centre.

Select the country where you are claiming legal rights.

This should be the country whose laws you claim are violated by the relevant content.

Ireland

What legal issue do you wish to report?

- Intellectual property (e.g. copyright, trademark)
- Defamation
- Privacy/erasure under GDPR
- I believe that the content violates a law not mentioned above (e.g. hate speech)

Why do you believe that this content violates the specific laws that you believe to be violated?

Please explain which specific laws you believe are violated by the reported content. Provide as much detail as possible and include, via link or attachment, any relevant documentation or evidence supporting your determination, including copies of any investigations, legal actions or decisions that have been made with
